A film about Roi Klein who died in the Lebanon War in 2006

Roi Klein, was a deputy commander of the Golani Brigade 51st Battalion. He was posthumously awarded the Medal of Valor, Israel's highest award. During the Second Lebanon War in 2006, Klein was killed when he jumped onto a grenade in order to save the lives of his fellow soldiers. Before sacrificing his life, this quiet, gentle man cried out: "Shema Yisrael Hashem Elokeinu Hashem Echad" - Hear O Israel, The Lord is Our God, The Lord is One which details the inspirational story of the hundreds of Yeshiva students who escaped to Shanghai, China and lived to rebuild Torah throughout the world.

Between 1937 and 1941, Shanghai's open-port allowed over 20,000 European Jews seeking refuge from Nazi Germany.

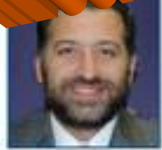

During this period, more Jews found sanctuary in China than in any other country in the world.
